Reading for Next Wednesday Evening.

BARBERS' BILL KILLED

Senate Adjourns as Usual, But the Assembly Will Hold a Saturday Session.

HOUSE PASSES SUBSTITUTE

Madison, Wis., April 26.—The primary election substitute passed by the assembly last evening was passed over to the senate today and by agreement was made a special order of reading for next Wednesday evening. It went on the calendar, which means that there was no further amendment in the committee.

The Barbers' License bill was killed in the senate 18 to 12. A motion to reconsider the vote will be taken on next Wednesday.

Th bills appropriating $1,300 to G. E. Vandercook and $1,100 to Alfred Cook for expenses in their contest for the assembly were concurred in by the senate.

The question of final adjournment was taken up by the assembly but was finally laid over until Thursday.

The senate adjourned until Monday night, but the assembly will hold a Saturday session.

TRAINER KILLED BY AN ELEPHANT

The Ugly Beast Runs Amuck and He Was Finally Killed with a Dose of Strychnine.

Peru, Ind., April 26.—Henry V. Hoffman, an animal trainer, was killed yesterday by Big Charley, an elephant belonging to the Wallace circus which has been in winter quarters here.

After killing Hoffman the elephant charged the employees in the circus quarters, and kept them at bay for three hours.

Big Charley was one of the largest elephants in the United States. He was 43 years old, weighed 8,800 pounds and had an ugly temper, however, and needed constant watching.

The superintendent finally decided to kill the beast, and he was tossed a large number of apples heavily charged with strychnine.

The elephant swallowed the poisoned fruit, but it was some time before he felt the effects of the drug. When the poison began to take effect the elephant left the circus grounds, and when he finally succumbed he was over a mile from quarters.

Hoffman's home was at Columbus, Ohio, where his wife and two children reside. He had been an animal trainer in Fairmount Park, Philadelphia, and at Central Park in New York.

Big Charley had a record as a man killer, having killed in his lifetime at least four of his keepers. He was valued at $10,000.

James P. Gage came down from Milton Junction yesterday and spent a pleasant day with his many friends.

VERDICT OF $5,000 AGAINST CITY FOR A FALL ON A DEFECTIVE WALK

Miss Anna E. Davey Received Numerous Bruises to Her Body and a severe Nervous Shock—This is a Warning for the Future.

On account of a fall on a defective sidewalk on North Hickory street, Miss Anna E. Davey was given a verdict against the city of Janesville for $5,000.

The case has been on trial in the circuit court for the last two days and has been stubbornly contested. Fethers, Jeffries & Mount appeared for the plaintiff and Attorney F. C. Burpee and William Riger for the city.

The complaint in the action alleges that on April 14, 1900, Miss Davey, who followed the occupation of a book agent, was coming down Hickory street in the Second ward. She stepped in a hole in the sidewalk, six inches wide and six inches deep, in front of lot 53, block 1 of Pixley & Shaw's addition to Janesville and by reason of the hole fell and sustained numerous injuries to her body and limbs and received such a shock to her nervous system that she has never recovered.

Expert testimony was introduced by both sides and the testimony of Drs. Judd and Gibson for the plaintiff and Whiting and Buckmaster for the defense was almost the same. It showed clearly that there was very little chance of the defendant's ever being any better. Under the statement of facts shown during the trial of the case, it was thought that there could be but one verdict reached, and that it would be in favor of the plaintiff but how much was the question.

The case went to the jury yesterday afternoon and after delivering his charge Judge Dunwiddie directed them to bring in a sealed verdict if they were out after the court adjourned. They were not long in coming to a decision and shortly after six

REV. RICHARD VAUGHAN IS CALLED TO FILL BAPTIST CHURCH PULPIT

Call Was Extended to the Detroit, Mich., Preacher
Unanimously by a Vote of the Members at a Business Meeting Held Last Night.

Rev. Richard M. Vaughan of Detroit has been called to the pulpit of the Baptist church of this city as successor to the late Rev. Arthur C. Kempton.

The call was extended unanimously by a vote of the members of the church at a business meeting held last evening at the close of the regular weekly prayer service. Rev. Vaughan will receive official notification of the call immediately.

It is not definitely known whether Rev. Vaughan will accept the call or not. On the occasion of his last visit to this city he was approached by prominent members of the board and asked if he would accept a call if it were extended to him. He declined to make any statement but the fact that he did not absolutely refuse to consider the call is looked upon as a favorable sign by members of the church which is so desirous of securing him as a pastor.

Rev. Vaughan is a self made man. He was born in this state and worked his way through college. While attending Wayland university at Beaver Dam, he spent his time when out of school splitting rails and doing whatever work he could get to help recommend him most heartily as in out his expense account. In the meantime he was preaching in country churches whenever called on. From Wayland he went to the University of Chicago where he completed the theological course. He served for two years as assistant to Rev. Hanson, D. D., of Chicago, and for nearly two years he has been pastor of the Second Baptist church of Detroit.

Rev. Vaughan is a young man and is said to be rarely efficient in church work. He is about thirty years of age and has a wife but no children.

He is a brilliant and fluent speaker and made many warm friends on the two Sundays which he occupied the pulpit of the local church. He is especially noted for the strength of his work among young people and for his ability as a pastor as well as a preacher.

He is a deep student, the possessor of rare intellectual faculties and has a very charming personality.

While he has made no application for the Janesville church and has sent no recommendations, the pulpit committee has received endorsements from high authorities in the Baptist church who speak in the most favorable terms of the Rev. Vaughan and recommend him most heartily as in the every way desirable.

It is only fair that the readers of the Commoner should know what I am 'up to' and I, if they will pardon me for being a little bit personal, will tell them that I have twice received at the hands of my party the highest honor that can bestow—had twice as my nomination been endorsed by our allies, the populists and silver republicans. The first nomination came from the delegates attendant upon three conventions; the second nomination came directly from the voters of the three parties.

"These honors were bestowed not only because of personal merit, nor as a personal compliment, but because of my advocacy of democratic principles. I still believe in those principles and expect to advance them during the remainder of my life.

"I am not planning for another presidential campaign. If I were I would not be editing a paper. If I ever become a candidate again it will be because it seems necessary for the advancement of the principles to which I adhere, and that does not now seem probable."

Retreat by Chinese Expected

Berlin, April 26.—The Lokal Anzeiger's special correspondent, cabling from Cheng Ting, near Pao-Ting-Fu, says:

"The German and French expedition is approaching the front of the Chinese army, which is apparently 25,000 strong and well entrenched in three positions. The Germans marched over difficult mountain passes on the way to the great wall."

"Nieng Twi Kan. The enemy appears indisposed to offer resistance, and its retreat behind the great wall is expected."

Washington, April 26.—Confirmation is made here this morning of the report that the dowager empress of China has delegated her powers to a national board which will occupy the same position toward the Chinese government as the cabinet does to the United States government.

Assembly hall was packed to its utmost capacity and before eight o'clock standing room was at a premium. The crowd was good-natured however and every one had a jolly time.

Rev. Father W. A. Goebel presided and opened the program with some amusing remarks on the ushers praising them for their regular attendance at church and giving them personal hits which caused much amusement.

It had been expected that an eloquent speech by each usher would be given, but owing to various reasons the majority of the gentlemen who were to have given them were not able to be present and the only speakers were F. M. Marzluft, who spoke for Harry Schmidley, and E. H. Ryan, who represented Charles Cox.

The pin was presented to Mr. Schmidley and the winner made a neat little speech in accepting it.

The choir of St. Mary's church, under the efficient direction of Prof. Wm. Thiele, gave two delightful numbers on the program, a marching song and "Mother's Song." Miss Tessie Gibbons presided at the organ faultlessly.

After the program the balance of the evening was spent in playing progressive games and while many people went home early the hall was crowded until 11 o'clock. The first prize winners at the cards were Miss Nellie Fardy and Thomas Shugrue while Miss Lillie Crowley and Will Hogan received the booby prizes.

BIG SUITS AGAINST THE NORTHWESTERN

Oshkosh, Wis., April 26.—The Chicago and Northwestern railway company has been sued for $250,000 damages by forty-four claimants alleged to have been injured in a wreck at De Pere, Wis., June 24 of last year on a Sangerfest excursion train. All are residents of Oshkosh, Menasha and Fond du Lac. These cases are in addition to a large number now pending.

ROSE ATTACKS BALLOW

Criticizes the Milwaukee City Treasurer for Many Mistakes—Impeachment May Follow.

Milwaukee, Wis., April 26.—City Treasurer Ballow's action in suspending Assistant Treasurer Cooke and reinstating him after a conference with Mayor Rose, called forth from the mayor last night a stinging letter in which his honor pointedly told the city treasurer that if he would familiarize himself with his own business and let that of other departments alone he would have much less trouble on his hands.

Mayor Rose also said that any further outbreaks of this sensational nature would lead to trouble for the treasurer. In connection with the last hint members of the common council today were talking of removing the treasurer, which, under the charter, they can do.

RAPS NORTHERN REFORMERS.

Gov. Candler of Georgia Says South Can Attend to Negro.

New York, April 26.—A special to the World from Savannah, Ga., says:

Gov. Allen D. Candler, in commenting on the coterie of philanthropists headed by Robert C. Ogden that recently made an "educational tour" through the south, says in part:

"I don't think much of this tour. The negro colleges of the south do not need the aid of these northern people very much. We can attend to the education of the negro in the south without the aid of northerners, and give them the education they most need, too. I do not believe in the higher education of the negro. He should be taught the trades, when he is taught the fine arts he gets educated out of his caste and is unhappy."

"I am opposed to putting negroes in factories and offices. When you do that you will cause dissatisfaction between the two races, and such things might lead to a race war."

CONGER DEFENDS THE MISSIONERS

He Denies Stories of Their Looting and Collecting by Force.

MAY ENTER POLITICS

Believes Indemnity Question Will Be Solved—Ching Can Pay $300,000,000.

AMERICA WILL SAVE CHINA

San Francisco, April 26.—"Dr. A. is the most lied about man in China, unless it is myself."

"The stories of looting by missionaries and their collecting indemnities by force are absolutely false."

"The missionaries acted with nobility and heroism during the Peking siege, fighting bravely alongside the soldiers and the rest of us."

"Everything that bore a foreign name that could be reached by the Boxers, supported as they were by the government, was destroyed."

"The policy of the United States will be to maintain the integrity of China."

These are the statements of Major Edwin H. Conger, United States minister to China.

He arrived here yesterday afternoon on the Japanese liner Nippon Maru on a six months' leave of absence.

May Return to Peking.

He was most cordial and pleasant but declined absolutely to discuss anything pertaining to Chinese complications. In regard to politics he was a little more communicative, but said that his present plan was to return to Peking at the expiration of his sixty-day leave of absence.

Regarding the governorship he said:

"My present expectation and desire is to go back to China. Until I get home I prefer to let the matter stand as at present. I feel I belong to the people of Iowa, and if I decide it is their desire I might allow myself to be nominated."

Says China Can Pay $300,000,000.

Minister Conger was surprised to learn that the indemnity question was not settled.

"When I left," he said, "the ministers were endeavoring to arrange some plan so that the demands of all nations could be placed on the same basis. The amount of indemnity to be demanded cannot be fixed until this agreement is reached. When I left it was not known what the war expenses of the different nations were. Individuals, missionaries and merchants were filing claims and the ministers were endeavoring to harmonize them. China could pay $300,000,000 in my opinion without being crippled."

Stories of Cruelty Exaggerated.

He also discountenanced the stories of brutality on the part of the allied troops. "The stories are much exaggerated. No doubt when the soldiers first entered Peking, with the outrages of the Chinese fresh in their minds, some individuals took sharp revenge. Some savage things are done by soldiers in all armies which

HONOR FOR MRS. BOND

The Former Janesville Woman is Being Lionized by Eastern Musical and Literary People.

Mrs. Carrie Jacobs-Bond of Chicago formerly of this city, is in New York where she is being quite lionized by some of the leading musical and literary people of the East. Elbert Hubbard of the famous Roycroft shops, has interested himself greatly in the success of this plucky little woman who, solely by her own efforts, talent and ambition, has won her way to the front as a song writer and composer.

Mrs. Bond has given several delightful recitals at East Aurora at the request of Mr. Hubbard and she has sung and told her original little stories in rhyme in several of the exclusive homes of New York City. She was especially honored by being invited to appear on the program at a dinner given in honor of Elbert Hubbard and at which the guests were all writers of great note.

During her stay in New York City she has also appeared twice before the Woman's Philharmonic club at Carnegie hall and at the homes of Mrs. Ella Wheeler Wilcox, Lovell T. Field, Amy Fay, Major James B. Pond, who is known all over the United States as the manager of high grade musical attractions and lectures. A pleasant feature of the gathering at Major Pond's was that Mrs. Bond had the pleasure of meeting J. D. King and Mr. and Mrs. Sonnenborn, who formerly resided in this city.

Mrs. Bond has been a guest of honor at the Roycroft shops for some time. She has recently issued a little collection of songs and poems which are artistically bound and bear on the title page in the center of a design of wild roses the words "Seven Songs as Unpretentious as the Wild Rose." This artistic little book has been highly praised by metropolitan critics and the Milwaukee Journal recently asked Mrs. Bond for permission to publish some of the things contained in it.

One of the front pages of the book contains the tribute which Amber, the celebrated author now deceased, paid to Mrs. Bond in 1895. It reads "To Carrie Bond: A dear tramp, who came in one day to leave a song—but stole my heart away."

Another page is devoted to the kindly words of praise which mean so much coming from a man like Elbert Hubbard. He says "Art at the least, is a matter of heart, not head; and this fact was brought home to me strongly a few weeks ago on hearing Carrie Jacobs-Bond. Here is a woman who writes poems, sets them to music, and sings them in a manner that reveals the very soul of art. Her performance is all so gentle, spontaneous and unaffected that you think you could do the same yourself—simple, pattering little child songs, set to tunes that sing themselves. But in some way they search out the corners of your soul, and make you think of the robin that used to sing at sunset, calling to his lost mate, from the top of a tall poplar in the days of long ago. As a reader and singer Carrie Jacobs-Bond is as subdued as a landscape by Monet, and as true and effective as a sketch by De Miville."

The interest which Mr. Hubbard has taken in Mrs. Bond as an artist borrows additional value to Janesville people from the fact that many of them have so recently seen and heard him, the master Roycrofter having appeared on the People's lecture course last winter.

Mrs. Bond's friends in this city expect to receive a visit from her in about six weeks. She will always be a welcome guest in this city which is proud of its claim upon her and of the affection, which, as her old home, it has inspired in her and which she is always glad to voice.

One of the daintiest songs in her collection is one to which she has written both words and music. It is as follows:

STILL UNEXPRESSED.

Ab'l tis but a dainty flow'r
I bring to you;
Yes, 'tis but a violet
Glistening with dew.
But deep in the heart there lie
Beauties concealed.
So, too, in my heart of hearts
Love unrevealed.
Ab'l tis but a faded flow'r
Kopt thro' the years;
Yes, 'tis but a violet
Wet with my tears.
Yet deep in my heart of hearts
Trust and best,
There lies my love to you
Still unexpressed.

AMUSEMENT NOTES

Stuart Robson, who has played more parts than any living actor will be seen in his great creation of Tony Lumpkin, the leading role in "She Stoops to Conquer" at Myers Grand Opera House on Friday May 3. This is unquestionably the most important booking that has been made this season by Mr. Myers. Robson's impersonation of Lumpkin is the most successful effort of his long career. Reports from other cities in which Mr. Robson has played "She Stoops to Conquer" this year are a unit in the statement that the theatres have been crowded to overflowing. It is safe to predict that a similar condition awaits the comedian's visit to this city. The company in support of Mr. Robson embraces some of the best known and most talented players in the dramatic profession. Several of them have in years gone by starred on their own account. Among the names of those in his support are John E. Henshaw, H. A. Weaver, Sr., Brinsley Shaw, O. E. Hallan, Clifford Leigh, Joseph P. Winter, Bert Washburn, Frank Robbins, M. R. Klein, James Grant, Eleanor Barry, Ellen Mortimer and May Ten Broeck.

Chic, vivacity, piquancy, grace and fineness are a few of the terms which can express Miss Held's clever interpretation of the role of "Anna" in "Papa's Wife" which will be presented here at the Myers Grand. It is both vivacious and humorous, and Anna Held in the title role is simply irresistible with her delicate and dainty touches. Her singing gains additional charm from her French accent as does her beauty from her French dressing. Her efforts are ably seconded by Mr. Charles Bigelow, who as Professor Celestine causes many a ripple of laughter. A striking novelty in the first act is the introduction of an automobile in which Anna Held is dexterously steered through a crowd of pretty chorus girls, singing a refrain to her solo. Act second is laid in the reception room of the Golden Lion Hotel, where the convent-bred heroine learns many things, incidentally the taste of champagne in the supper scene after which she sings in French the popular song of the colonel. Expense has not been spared to make this scene realistic. The third act, as is usual with third acts, straightens out all the complications and gives us a surprising denouement in that it makes papa's wife not his wife at all.

Imitators have been many. Thoughtful people have learned that true merit comes only with the genuine Rocky Mountain Tea made by Madison Medicine, 35c. Smith's pharmacy; Kodak agents, next to postoffice.

A picture of the government mint building at Philadelphia has been placed in Hall, Sayles & Fifield's window and attracts considerable attention from the fact that above it in large letters are the words "Our New Post Office." Indian songs, Spanish songs and other ballads, together with superb colored stereopticon views, will make up an evening's entertainment to be remembered long. The following are the endorsements of a few of Janesville's singers who have heard him. Other commendations will follow:

Mr. Brigham has a well trained, pleasing tenor voice. He is truly a sweet singer. It is a rare treat to hear him. Chas. A. Knippenberg, Trinity Church choir.

The fullness and mellowness of tone and at the same time the ease and clearness with which Mr. Brigham sings is truly remarkable. F. E. Smith.

I am glad to have heard Nat. M. Brigham sing for me; his singing is grand. I never heard better. Harry P. Robinson.

I take great pleasure in recommending Mr. Nat. M. Brigham as a singer and once hearing him has proved to me that he is an artist both as a singer and a lecturer. W. A. Drummond, Pres. of Y. P. S.

A very pleasant surprise was perpetrated on Mrs. Hicks at her home on Roger avenue on Wednesday evening, about forty of her friends and neighbors paying her an unexpected visit. Mrs. Hicks made them cordially welcome, however, and the evening was spent in playing progressive cinch. STOMACHS THAT WON'T WORK.

That Retain the Food and Refuse to Digest it, Make the Head Heavy and the nerves Weak, Need

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets,

There is a cure for dyspepsia. Sufferers who have tried noxious nostrums will probably be skeptical but skepticism vanishes when Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are tried. Whether the trouble is dyspepsia of long standing or merely a simple case of indigestion, relief is prompt and pronounced. The less the trouble the fewer the tablets need be taken.

Heaviness after eating, sour stomach, as indicated by belching, fatigue with slight exertion, or with no exertion at all, disturbed sleep, nervousness, constipation depression, "blues" these things can commonly be set down as symptoms of dyspepsia. And dyspepsia is merely indigestion in an aggravated form.

By promoting perfect digestion, Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets produce strong nerves, restful, refreshing sleep, pure blood and good sound healthy flesh. They make the skin clear the eyes bright, the mind cheerful.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are a medicine and more than a medicine. They digest the food and make it easy of assimilation, and they relieve the inflamed, diseased condition of the membranous linings and the glands of the stomach and bowels. They help the digestive organs over the hard places, and put them into healthy, active condition. They effect a quick and permanent cure. You don't have to continue taking them for ever, still it is well to have a box handy and take one at the first return of the trouble.

Perfectly well people are made sick by eating too much, or unwholesome food, but not if they take a tablet after eating. Treatment with Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets does not necessitate dieting or any change of habits. They digest the proper food and act upon the other kind in such a way as to make it pass off quickly and harmlessly. You may eat and drink what you like, when you like, and as much as you like if you take a tablet afterwards.

Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets are sold by all the druggists at 50 cents for full size package.

Fine Testimony to a thing of Merit.

Mr. H. F. Nott, agent for the Hardman Piano, has received the following testimonial from one competent to know what a good piano is. It is with much satisfaction that Mr. Nott gives this public testimonial:

Mr. H. F. Nott, Janesville, Wis.—Dear Sir:—In 1874 my parents purchased a Concert Square Hardman Piano. This instrument is now in my possession, having been in constant use for over 20 years. I have never required repairs and although in the early years we kept it frequently tuned it is now five years since it has been tuned and is in good condition with clear, soft musical tone and good touch. I have known several Hardmans and have yet to see one which failed in quality or durability. Wishing the Hardman every success I am its friend,

POULTNEY BIGELOW'S WAIL.

Poultny Bigelow, the noted traveler and historian, has just returned to London, after having delivered a course of lectures at Harvard and Yale. He rubbed up against President Hadley, and became tinctured with some of his pessimistic notions about revolution, as the result of

"He found corporations stalking through the halls of congress," and said that the Filipino revolution was being encouraged in the interests of stock jobbers and speculators. Said that he would rather live under Emperor William of Germany, than under the vicious tyranny of oil and steel kings.

Poultny Bigelow has it bad. He must wear a No. 11 hat and an 18 inch collar. If he belongs to England he had better settle down on his own dung hill, and take a breathing spell. Why American institutions of learning, should harbor that kind of a duck is a conundrum that the average citizen passes up.

Between Poultny Bigelow and Peter Kropotkin, education in this country will receive an impetus that is faithfully cultivated, will graduate in a few years the worst lot of cranks ever to curse any country.

American colleges and universities have enough disgruntled theoretical instructors connected with them now, and the seeds of disloyalty and un-Americanism are being well scattered without the aid of malcontents from the old world.

TIDE OF IMMIGRATION.

It is gratifying to know that private enterprise has taken up the work of the defunct immigration commission, and that results are already apparent.

The first colony of Finlanders that will soon locate in the northern part of the state, under the management of Mr. Shurman of Appleton, will be followed by many more if any effort is made to secure them.

The Finlanders are so oppressed by the Russian government that their condition in some respects is worse than bondage. They are all ready to leave the country and locate in America, and many of them will do so this summer, if they can evade Russian surveillance, which is very strict.

Wisconsin is in position to find homes for these people and an effort should be made to secure them. While the State Board of Immigration may not have been the best agency, it was vastly better than none.

The state can afford to spend a little money on this class of home seekers. It is like seed well planted that is sure to return an abundant harvest. Germany, Norway and Sweden, are already well represented in the state. There is ample room for more of these sturdy races, and the Finlanders as well. They are all good citizens and peaceable and valuable acquisition to the state.

They are a contented class of people as a rule, not tinctured with socialism or anarchy. They are loyal to the "Faderland" and equally loyal under free conditions, to the land of their adoption. The State of Wisconsin welcomes them with a warm grasp of the hand, and should encourage every agency that contributes to their locating within our borders.

Winter has lingered in the lap of spring so long, that spring will have to get busy to make up for lost time. This flirting of the seasons is a little demoralizing.

MUST HAVE WINE AT EVERY MEAL; ANNA HELD CANNOT DRINK WATER

French Actress Arrives in Town in Her Special Car with Her Dogs and a Bear Cub -She Loves America, But Is Anxious to Get Home.

The divine Anna Held is in the city. She and her husband, Manager F. Ziegfeld, together with a retinue of five servants arrived on her private car, "Edgemere," early this morning from Madison where her company appeared last evening.

The "Edgemere" is sidetracked at the Chicago and Northwestern passenger depot and when a Gazette representative called at the car this afternoon, Madame Ziegfeld was enjoying a romp in the adjoining park with her two pet dogs and a bear cub which travel in state with her. An audience of employees from surrounding tobacco warehouses were crowded on the platform and around the park and enjoyed the unusual scene heartily until one o'clock whistles called them back to prosaic labor.

Madame came into the car very much out of breath and laughing with the pleased abandon of a child over the antics of her pets. The first part of her chatty conversation was devoted to praise of them. The bear cub which is six weeks old and which was given to her by an admiring Chicago friend, she has honored with her own name, Anna Held. "And I shall make such a pet of her" she said, "Ah be careful. She may bite you. She does not mean to, but she is quite rough."

When Madame Ziegfeld seated herself in the parlor of the car a little blue and tan terrier "Daisy" jumped into her lap but "Blackie," the black poodle, which became famous for being left by the car at an out of the way station and following it for miles until exhausted, a few weeks ago, accompanied Mr. Ziegfeld down town. Daisy took the prize for being the smallest dog in the world at the New York exhibition a year ago and by request she is to be entered in the approaching Chicago exhibition.

Madame Ziegfeld, unlike most stars does not object to one night stands and enjoys traveling life in her priare not countenanced by civilized countries."

MINISTER CONGER BACK FROM CHINA

Speaking of looting by missionaries, Mr. Conger said: "The missionaries have not looted and I have not countenanced looting."

Minister Conger will go to Washington after a short stay at Des Moines and will make his report to the state department.

Defends the Missionaries.

"The Christian missionaries in China have been grossly misrepresented," said Minister Conger. "Few things have been done by them for which any apology need be made—certainly no more than for the acts of other foreign civilians or soldiers in China. I don't say they did nothing that might not have been better done, differently, but the stories of their looting and collecting indemnities by force are absolutely false, for they did nothing of the kind." "Then you don't consider the missionaries to be the chief cause of the trouble?" was asked. "By no means; they were only a part of the cause. The animosity of the Chinese was directed not against the representatives of foreign religions, but against everything foreign." Railroads, business enterprises of all kinds, everything that bore a foreign name or could be reached by the Boxers, supported, as they were, by the government, was destroyed. The missionaries as a class were no more offensive to the Chinese than other foreigners. It is true that the missionaries in some instances have been perhaps too much inclined to mix in lawsuits and other controversies on behalf of Chinese Christians." "Mr. Conger, you have been severely criticized by a Japanese paper for authorizing the expeditions to enforce the payment of indemnities. Were these indemnities collected by force?" "No, they were not collected by force in any instance, neither did I authorize the expeditions, for I had no right to do so."

Talk of Return to China.

"Is it your desire to return to China?" Minister Conger was asked. "I might say it is my intention to return to China upon the conclusion of my leave of absence," was his reply. "I have been given a leave of absence for sixty days, which means sixty days in this country exclusive of the time required in traveling. When my time is up I shall return to Pekin."

Des Moines Plans Big Reception.

Des Moines, Ia., April 26.—The Iowa executive council has passed a resolution granting to the citizens of Des Moines the use of the state house for a public reception to Edwin H. Conger, minister to China, who has arrived at San Francisco, and will arrive in Des Moines in a few days. The state house has never been used before for a reception to other than state officers and returning soldiers.

Battleship Squadron Arrives.

New York, April 26.—The North Atlantic squadron, consisting of the battleships Kearsarge, Alabama and Massachusetts, under the command of Rear Admiral Farquhar, arrived yesterday from Kingston, Jamaica, and anchored off Tompkinsville, Staten Island. The Kearsarge is the flagship of the squadron.

Actor Gets $6,000 in Suit.

London, April 26.—In court here yesterday Charles McCarthy was awarded £1,000 damages in his libel suit against the Evening News. This paper made a statement to the effect that McCarthy deserted a company which he had taken to Paris to play "The Big Fire in New York" during the exposition last year.

POND'S EXTRACT

There is only ONE POND'S EXTRACT, and everybody knows its purity, strength and great medicinal value. Don't take the weak, watery Witch Hazel preparations represented to be "the same as" POND'S EXTRACT. They generally contain "wood alcohol," which irritates the skin, and, taken internally, is a deadly poison. Get genuine POND'S EXTRACT, sold ONLY in SEALED bottles, in BUFF wrappers.

KING'S DAUGHTERS' FAIR AT MILTON

First Ball Game of the Season—One Half of Funds Needed to Pay College Debt.

THE GAZETTE'S AGENCY,
W. W. CLARK, Manager
Milton, Wis., April 26, 1901.

The fair of the King's Daughters will be held at the Milton House Wednesday and Thursday, June 5 and 6. An elegant supper will be served on both evenings and on the evening of the 6th a literary and musical entertainment will be given at the S. D. B. church. Save up your dollars and be prepared to separate yourselves therefrom on those dates.

The first game on the diamond of the season was played Wednesday between the Philomathians and Orophilians, and the former won by a score of 10 to 6. Many of the players had not handled the ball since last year, and all things considered they put up a good game. Blise and Place did the battery work for the Oros and Rood and Platte for the Philos. Milt. Whitford called the balls and strikes, and the Co-Eds blew the horns. After the game was over the college band, recently organized, rendered some selections in a very creditable manner.

The hedge in front of the college campus has been cut out, and it is a notice able and long-needed improvement.

More than one half of the fund needed to pay in full the indebtedness of Milton college, has been paid or pledged, and now is the time to make your contribution to that worthy object. You can have until June 1, 1902, in which to pay your subscription.

Du Lac Lodge I. O. O. F., will have work in the initiatory degree next Monday evening. Visiting brothers are always welcome.

Some of the farmers in this locality are not pleased with the location of the Cooperative creamery, and claim that a conference game was worked on them.

We are being favored with some genuine spring weather, and no one complains at its advent.

Contributions of any kind for the King's Daughters' fair, may be sent to Mrs. L. J. Crumb, Milton, Wis.

H. E. Todd of the Journal office, is visiting friends at Walworth.

Mrs. J. N. Humphrey of Whitewater spent Tuesday with her mother, Mrs. E. M. Dunn.

The rummage sale of the W. H. C. was quite a success, and put the sum of $25 in their treasury.

Of Miss Olof Krarer, who is to lecture here next month under the management of the King's Daughters, the Sioux City Journal says: "At the Y. M. C. A. auditorium last night Miss Olof Krarer, the Esquimaux woman, lectured on the customs of her people. The audience was intensely interested in the lecture." A. M. Glenn of Janesville, spent Tuesday here.

of cod-liver oil is the means of life, and enjoyment of life to thousands: men women and children.

When appetite fails, it restores it. When food is a burden, it lifts the burden.

When you lose flesh, it brings the plumpness of health.

When work is hard and duty is heavy, it makes life bright.

It is the thin edge of the wedge; the thick end is food. But what is the use of food, when you hate it, and can't digest it?

Scott's Emulsion of cod-liver oil is the food that makes you forget your stomach.

If you have not tried it, send for free sample, to agreeable taste will surprise you.

Going to Build

Whether you contemplate building at a corner or in the rear, or in the middle of a block, BAKER'S "TWENTIETH CENTURY HOMES" is the most complete book of Architectural Designs published.

Nearly 150 pages, printed on heavy enamel paper. It is not a theoretical book. Every design shown is one that has been erected under the direction of our supervising architect. Consequently it is practical in every respect.

It embraces subjects from an attractive cottage at four hundred dollars, to a modern up-to-date residence, costing many thousand dollars.

The perspectives are full-page illustrations while the floor plans are half-page sketches.

The descriptions are complete and easily understood, for it is an ideal book for practical, up-to-date designs and interesting descriptions.

The regular price is $2.00 but we would like to present you a copy free of charge.

If you could call at our office we would take pleasure in presenting you a copy. If it is not possible, we will send you a copy by express, charges prepaid upon receipt of only 25c, to cover cost of transportation.

The moderately straight R & G No. 397 was and is the corset of comfort with the essence of style. It is straight enough for the prevailing vogue and curved enough to conform to healthful anatomical lines. In 1900 we were unable to fully meet the demand for straight-front goods and unwilling to resort to any makeshift to meet the conditions. At present, however, considerable additions to our factory facilities enable us to keep the trade supplied with real straight-front corsets at retail prices from $1.00 to $2.50, and also our 397, 197, Empire and other popular numbers. There are over seventy styles and sizes of R & G Corsets—a corset to fit every figure. R & G Corsets are the corsets that do not stretch. Every hairbreadth of stretch is taken out of the goods by means of steam-heated iron forms. This gives a permanency to the right shape and form that will stay in it until the last day you wear it. Every R & G Corset is sold with the understanding that it must give satisfaction to the wearer, or the dealer will supply a new one free of cost. If your dealer hasn't it, send us his name and we will see that you are supplied with what you want.

Use 400 lbs. per acre and use it every year till you have raised the grade to No. 1—less acres and more fertilizer will do the business—I intend to keep it on hand, but your order should be placed early to be sure of a supply, as the demand will be largely increased this year.
